GERMANS MASSING ARMIES FOR DRIVE ON WARSAW

SWITCH IN LINE-UP IS RUMORED

Davie and Commissioners Discuss Appointments Secretly

Petersen to Be Deposed as Chief After July 1, It Is Reported

Secrecy marked the conference of the members of the new administration, held at the Young Men's Christian Association today, to decide what shall be done about naming a new city attorney. All the new commissioners, including Mayor-elect Davie, stated that there was nothing to give out after the meeting, but stated that another session will be held tomorrow, at which the matter will be finally settled.

A switch has apparently occurred in the line-up for appointments to the position of city clerk and city treasurer. Lawrence Cummings, formerly a Southern Pacific conductor, living in Alameda, was announced as the new city treasurer. The bond for this office is fixed by the city charter at $100,000. It is stated that the request for a bond for Cummings for this office has been withdrawn, and that application has been made to obtain a $100,000 bond for F. A. Cooley, who was announced at first as the nominee of the new administration for city clerk.

Rumor was busy today with the name of R. C. Vose, former city councilman, as a possible candidate for the position of city clerk. Former assistant city attorney, who has been connected with the legal department of the United Railroads. His home has been in Oakland for several years. If Vose is appointed, he will not oppose the naming by the three new members of the city council of his assistants in the city legal department. Attorney A. L. Frick, of Oakland, has been strongly considered, but Frick, who is recognized as an exceptionally able attorney, has insisted that if he accepts the appointment, he shall be permitted to name his assistants.

Information from authoritative sources indicates that Chief of Police Petersen is to be deposed and that his successor will be chosen from within the department. Up to yesterday there was every indication that Petersen would stay, as it was understood that there had not been an agreement among the commissioners-elect on this subject. It is thought that the necessary three votes to remove the chief were not available. The information today is that immediately after the first of July Petersen will be removed and will probably resume his position as captain of inspectors, which is the rank he holds under civil service.

'MUNITIONS AND MEN' IS THE CRY ENGLAND RAISES

Italy Claims Victory on Isonzo; Austria Denies the Loss of Plawa

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 25, 11:46 a. m.—Something of a lull in the fighting as compared to the feverish activity of the last fortnight, is enabling military observers on both sides to take stock and forecast future operations.

Petrograd claims that the Russian defensive positions are so secure that the Austro-Germans will not be able to withdraw many troops for use against the allies of Russia. The Russians assert further that their present line before Warsaw is as strong as it ever was and that their armies on the river Dniester will fall back only if the eastward drive of the Austro-Germans from Lemberg threatens to cut them off.

The authorities of the central empires are less communicative concerning their future intentions and movements, but it is believed that Warsaw again is their objective.

In England the campaign for munitions is in full swing with the possibility of national registration to ascertain the "man power" of the nation. That England appreciates the need of adding to her fighting resources is significantly indicated by the publication in the London Times of tables showing that the casualties of officers during the last month came within a few hundred of the total officer casualties during the entire South African war. The total in South Africa was 2752, while the lists since May 26 show that 2440 officers have been killed or wounded or reported missing.

ITALY GRADUALLY ADVANCING

ROME, via Paris, June 25.—A gradual advance along the Isonzo river, with the occupation of Globna, north of Plawa, and the edge of the plateau between Sagrado and Monfalcone, are announced in an official statement issued last night at the headquarters of the Italian general staff. The communication follows:

"In the Tyrol-Trentino region and in Cadore, there have been methodical artillery actions. At the same time we have been maintaining our activity along the front by means of reconnaissance by small detachments and thus we have had successful encounters at Carcano and Valcison and toward the plateau of Vezzena.

"In Carnia we continue an intense artillery fire, particularly against Malborghetto. Our projectiles today penetrated the cupola of Fort Hiesel.

"The night of the 22-23d the usual vain attacks of the enemy were repeated against our positions at Val Grande and Val Piccolo. In the region of Monte Nero we extended our occupation toward the north as far as the slopes of Javazovsky and made fifty prisoners. In this region we began firing against the Bay of Plezzo.

"Along the Isonzo we are advancing rapidly, reinforcing ourselves in position on the right bank of the river. We thus have occupied Globna, north of Plawa, and on the lower Isonzo we have captured the edge of the plateau between Sagrado and Monfalcone."

3000 DEAD LIE UNBURIED

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Dispatches to the Austro-Hungarian embassy here today said Plawa was still held by the Austrians and denied the claim that Italian troops have broken through. The telegram says:

"The Italian press reports from Italian headquarters, our press bureau states that Plawa is still held firmly by us. These positions were ordered taken by the Italian king, according to the statements of prisoners. The Italians have never broken through, although they lost thousands in field attack only. At least 3000 unburied dead lie before our positions. Our losses were considerably smaller."

Absolute Proof of Medbury Death Demanded of Widow

Many Obstacles in Way to Recovery of Coin From Affinity

For the second time in a week, Mrs. Lora M. Medbury, of Alameda, today failed to secure letters of administration to the local estate of her husband, Maurice M. Medbury, wealthy art dealer, who was one of the victims of the Lusitania disaster.

WIRE FROM BRYAN

Shepardson also presented a telegram from former Secretary of State Bryan to Mrs. Medbury, in which the official expressed regret that Medbury's name was not included in the list of survivors.

Mrs. Medbury took the stand to testify that she had not seen her husband for eight years, and had not heard from him in the past two years. She maintained, however, that Alameda was his legal residence, saying that up to two years ago she and her three children received monthly remittances from the art collector ranging from $150 to $1000.

Medbury is believed to have left an estate close to a quarter of a million dollars. The property is scattered about England, France and a half dozen Eastern states of this country. Some of it is said to be in the possession of various women with whom Medbury is said to have been intimate since he left home eight years ago. Mrs. Medbury declared that she will make an attempt to gain possession of the estate, and an international legal action may result, as a part of the property is said to be in the possession of Mrs. Maude Hare Danby, of London, who is said to have been living with Medbury at the time of his death.

Mrs. Medbury will leave soon for St. Louis, Mo., where she will seek to gain possession of property worth $75,000 left by her husband. She claims that her husband's fortune was built up on a foundation of $100,000, which had been left her by the death of her father, a U. S. X. business man.

At Springfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Greenfield he responded to cheers, stepping out upon the observation platform of his private car and shaking hands with many persons.

At Northampton students from Toronto University, on their way to the Y. M. C. A. conference at Northfield, gave their college yell and called for a speech. The President bowed his acknowledgments. "We are for peace with honor," shouted one man at Holyoke. "We are for you all the time." The crowd applauded and the President smiled, at the same time accepting a bunch of flowers from a little girl.

Since leaving Washington President Wilson has received only a few messages and most of those approval of his appointment of Robert Lansing as secretary of state. The party was due at Cornish at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

BRITISH NOTE REJECTS U.S. DEMAND

Americans Have No Cause of Complaint, Lord Crewe
Rejoins.

The enormous volume of American and neutral shipping engaged in the transatlantic trade, the figures and dates of the preceding paragraph will show, is a matter of fact, and not of opinion. It is a fact which the British government is not prepared to ignore. It is a fact which the British government is not prepared to ignore. It is a fact which the British government is not prepared to ignore.

REGARD FOR NEUTRALS.
"Since his majesty's government have been compelled to adopt these measures, they have given special consideration to the question of avoiding as far as possible unnecessary damage to the interests of neutrals in regard to the export of goods of German origin, and here again liberal concessions have been made to United States citizens under the rules enacted on the eleventh of March. Provision is made for the investigation of all neutral claims respecting such goods in the prize court, and it is obvious that these claims can receive due and equitable consideration most properly before a judicial tribunal. Nevertheless, in deference to the express desire of the United States government arrangements were made toward the end of March whereby by United States citizens who might desire to import goods of German origin via a neutral port were enabled to produce proof of payment to his majesty's embassy at Washington. If such proof were deemed satisfactory, his majesty's government gave an undertaking that such goods concerned should not be interfered with in transit, and the American importer was freed from the necessity of submitting his claim to the prize court in London for adjudication. A few days later his majesty's government further agreed to recognize the neutral character of goods of German origin if not paid for before the first of March, provided they were the subject of a contract of earlier date, and had arrived at a neutral port before the fifteenth of March.

DIFFERENCE IN CARGOES.
"Special treatment has also been accorded to cargoes of certain products destined for the United States and stated to be indispensable for the industries of the country; and, in notes addressed to the United States ambassador in April and May, undertakings were given not to interfere during transit with certain cargoes of essential foodstuffs and German seed.

"When it became apparent that large quantities of enemy goods were still passing out through neutral countries his majesty's government felt it necessary to fix a definite date after which such shipments must cease to enjoy the special immunity theretofore granted from liability to being placed in the prize court. It had been observed that a large increase had taken place in the number of vessels sailing from neutral countries to America, and one of the principal lines of steamships advertised daily in place of a weekly service. In such circumstances it appeared scarcely possible that goods of enemy origin, caught and seized prior to the 1st of March, should not have already been shipped to their destination. June 1 was accordingly fixed as the date after which such shipments should cease; but once more a special favor was granted by extending the date in exceptional cases to the 15th of June."

GERMANY IS CONCILIATORY.
By Associated Press.
BERLIN, via London, June 25.—There are good prospects that the forthcoming German note to the United States will go a long way toward meeting the American government's wishes regarding Germany's conduct of submarine warfare and making passenger traffic on the high seas safe.

While it is stated that submarine action against hostile merchantmen will not and cannot be abandoned entirely, it is increasingly probable that the German note will embody some proposals to exempt ships employed wholly or principally in passenger traffic from submarine attack.

Such ships, it is said, would of course be subject to stoppage and examination by submarines in accordance with the practice in vogue prior to the present war and to capture if carrying contraband, but the regular rules of the prize law

War Summary

German official accounts, of the fighting along the Danube agree with the Russian as to the despatch of the Russian army in that part of Galicia. The Russian, however, admits retrogression only at one point, stating that superior counter attacks by the Russians at Lemberg had caused a portion of General von Linsingen's troops to be withdrawn towards the Danube's southern bank.

Elsewhere in the southeastern theater of war progress was being made, the official statement said, while further north, although the Germans had evacuated the village of Kopytska, which they had recently captured, had broken through the Russian lines near Stegna and held their footing there.

Latest news of the campaign in France shows the resumption of extreme activity on the heights of the Meuse, where the French tell of a violent German attack. The German claim is that the operation there were begun by the French and that a French was retaken from them. The French admit a German advance, but declare the former lines later were re-established.

Galicia and its borders continue the main field of military activity. The Russians are fighting hard in the Galician territory that remains to them either to save that territory or give the retreating armies a chance to retire in good order.

Desperate battles, according to the official reports, are continuing along the Danube, where the Russian claim to have retained the advantage, despite their admission that Austro-German forces have pushed across the river in two places. In both cases the crossing forces were pushed back and are clashing precariously to the left bank of the stream, the Russians assert. In the Kosmierz district Grand Duke Nicholas is on the offensive and claims to have reached a strong fortified height by an assault.

Accounts of conditions in Lemberg during the Russian occupation received in Berlin, tell of hardships suffered by the families of officials displaced by the change from Austrian to Russian authority. Prominent men reduced to penury, had to resort to woodchopping for a living, while the women of their families baked bread and cakes and sold them from house to house.

Activity on the Italian front is chiefly in artillery engagements, with occasional interludes of infantry activity. The Italian claim, however, to be gradually advancing along the Isonzo and to have repulsed Austrian attacks at several points.

The latest French reports show progress for that army only in the ridges of Metzeral, in the Vosges, and this only to a slight degree.

Nothing is heard from the Dardanelles.

RUSSIAN YIELD INCREASES.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Russia's wheat yield per acre probably will be ten per cent greater this year than last, Henry E. Baker, American commercial attaché at Petrograd cables the department of commerce. The net yield is likely to be less, however, he says, because of the large reduction in acreage due to labor shortage and war conditions.

particular regarding the safety of passengers and crew, would be observed. It is hoped here that such a solution will satisfy the requirements of President Wilson's note. It is hoped and expected here among those who are working for a friendly settlement of the situation between Germany and the United States that the United States would see that such passenger ships were not used to transport ammunition and guns nor lend themselves to attacks upon submarines.

TO PROTEST CENSORSHIP.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—There will be protests against the interference with the free press of Europe passing through European belligerent territory to neutrals.

Since belligerents are permitted to censor cable messages in transit, officials here think letters should undergo the same risks.

President General Burleson already has ordered that mail to neutrals be sent on ships which do not touch belligerent ports.

BERLIN, June 25, via London.—The peace debate in the Prussian chamber yesterday on the attitude of the German people toward peace attracted considerable attention today. Herr Braun, Herr Wiener and Dr. Liebknecht took part in the exchange. The newspaper report the proceedings substantially as follows:

"Herr Wiener, progressive, cited with signs of approval from the members of the Prussian chamber, an article in the Berliner Freiheit, a Socialistic paper, to the effect that no German wants peace until Germany's enemies are willing to concede her right to develop her economic and cultural power."

"To this statement Dr. Karl Liebknecht, one of the Socialist leaders, interjected: 'We have the masses with us and the masses want peace.'"

"After this interruption, Herr Wiener continued:

NORTHCLIFFE DEMANDS TRUTH ABOUT WAR BE TOLD BRITISH PUBLIC

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 25.—A demand that the nation be told the "truth about the war" is voiced by the Times in an editorial. The paper declares there is no immediate prospect of being able to compel the Germans to withdraw within their own frontiers; that it will take months to provide the British forces with the big guns, high explosives, and machine guns which are necessary.

"The country has not to set its teeth," says the Times, "in regard to the confusion of the British public by the propaganda of a prolonged and unprogressive campaign in the west, which has been the result of the successful march probably has postponed a resumption of the Russian offensive for several months until they are also provided with guns and shells."

"To put the British public on both fronts are being held with no prospect of an early change. Moreover, the outlook in the Dardanelles, of which the loss said the better, long ago ceased to offer prospects of a swift and easy diversion in the Middle-East."

The London Times is one of Lord Northcliffe's papers, which has wanted an energetic campaign for greater publicity in connection with the war. His attacks upon the British government are credited with being largely responsible for the formation of the new coalition ministry and the appointment of David Lloyd-George as minister of munitions.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS
By Associated Press.
PARIS, June 25, 2:30 p. m.—The French war office afternoon statement reads:

"North of Arras French troops last night attacked between Angres and Souchez and made further progress. In the Labyrinth, a German counter attack has been repulsed. This engagement was followed by a violent counter-attack of our trenches, to which our batteries replied."

"In the Champagne district, near Rheims, and also near Perthes, the enemy yesterday and during last night exploded mines, but did not deliver any infantry attack. They were not even able to occupy the excavations made by these explosions."

"In the Argonne and at Vauquois the fighting with mines continues, and there occurred several local engagements marked by the throwing of bombs and of hand grenades."

"On the heights of the Meuse, at the Calonne trench, the Germans last evening delivered a violent attack along our entire front, hurling asphyxiating bombs and flaming liquids. After penetrating that portion of their former second line of defenses which we occupied, they were thrown out again by an energetic French counter attack. At midnight the enemy attempted a further offensive, but found themselves under fire from our barriers, and were dispersed with heavy losses."

"In Lorraine the enemy yesterday on two occasions endeavored to retake the positions he had lost near Leintmey. He was completely repulsed."

"In the Vosges, two German infantry attempts were checked by artillery and infantry fire. They were delivered against Reich Alberkopf after a violent artillery bombardment."

"A German aviator yesterday threw five bombs on the Whiditum at Soudcoote, but without doing any damage."

KING LUDWIG ADDRESSES SERENADERS AT PALACE
By Associated Press.
MUNICH, via London, June 25.—"I thank you for having come here to rejoice with me over the victorious advance of our armies and those of our ally," said King Ludwig in addressing a crowd estimated at 10,000 who went to the palace to serenade the monarch in honor of the fall of Lemberg.

"This victory," the King continued, "probably brings us nearer peace; but for a long time our watchword must be to have patience and hold out until the enemies, east, west and south, are completely defeated."

"That we already have made much progress is due in the first instance to our brave troops who have gained victory upon victory. But we also owe it to the labor-at-homes, whose self-sacrificing labor has filled the places of laborers called to the colors; to the manufacturing industry and to our agriculture, which enable us, although encircled by foes, to meet from our own resources the requirements of the country and the army and to feed our people; and, finally, and not the least, to our laboring population, who, as in few other countries, have taken upon themselves the welfare of the whole people."

"But our watchword must continue to be to hold out. Many of you already have had to make heavy sacrifices in the loss of dear ones and great sacrifices still are needed. May the thought comfort you that you made these sacrifices in a great day for the great cause of our country, our empire and our entire German people. Again I thank you and commend you to God."

CHRISTIANIA, via London, June 25.—The steamer Berlingsford, on which Dr. Bernhard Dernburg was a passenger on his way from the United States to Germany, arrived last night at Bergen, after being detained at Kirkwall, Scotland, by the British authorities.

Dr. Dernburg, who had been engaged in presenting to the United States the German side of the European war, sailed from New York on the Berlingsford on June 12. He was granted a safe conduct by the allies. Stamboul Is Divided Over Sultan's Heir

By Associated Press.
PARIS, June 25.—A Constantinople dispatch from Constantinople, dated June 24, says a dispatch from Athens, that after it became apparent last week that the illness of the Sultan was of a serious nature, the royal physicians met and decided that Yusuf Izzet, eldest son of the late Sultan Abdul Hamid, should assume the regency. This proposal was vigorously opposed by the committee on union and progress, resulting in a deadlock the solution of which has not yet been found.

An operation for the removal of a stone in the bladder has been performed upon the Sultan by Professor Israel, the German specialist, who has been at the Sultan's bedside for several days, according to a Constantinople dispatch, received at London by the Reuters Telegram Company, last night.

SLAV ARMY UNIMPAIRED; PETROGRAD ASSERTS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 25.—A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd says that owing to the unimpaired fighting power of the Russian army, the Austro-Germans will be unable to transfer troops either to the Warsaw or the western battle fronts.

"As yet," the correspondent adds, "the retirement from Lemberg has not affected the Russian front, where no modifications are likely to occur only if the Germans succeed in advancing eastward, thus threatening the Russian rear and flank. It is affirmed that the enemy has concentrated on the Russian front all the Austrian cavalry, some eleven divisions, and almost all the German cavalry, namely, four divisions, but that their activity is not very marked."

Lighting Contract for Year Is Awarded to P. G. & E. Without Change.

Final passage was given the ordinance reducing the license of theaters from $100 to $50. It was passed when the ordinance was introduced that final passage would be deferred till after July 1, but the council acted today and passed the ordinance. It was introduced at the request of the Theatrical Managers' Association. The lighting contract for the coming fiscal year was awarded to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. This is one of the largest single contracts in the city. The contract provides for the lighting of all theaters in the city. The rate for the year is approximately the same as last year. Contractor was also awarded the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for steam for heating the City Hall. The council gave final passage to the ordinance amending the building ordinance in the matter of using that slab construction in reinforced concrete structure. This will in future be permitted in Oakland. The ordinance was introduced by J. J. Kalar, sent to Committee on Streets. W. J. Baccus, was with the city council today and referred to Kalar for an answer. REFUSES REPLY. Kalar has declined to make reply to the charges preferred several days ago by Commissioner Baccus, stating that he preferred not to be interviewed. He said that he was satisfied to rely upon the records of his office. The letter from the wire rope company criticizing him read in part as follows: "We have not been permitted the courtesy of bidding or quoting on the business of supplying wire rope for the municipal dredger, although we have explained to Mr. Kalar that our rope is of high quality and that we carry a large stock. It would seem to us that a purchasing department having at heart an economical purpose would be open to and would solicit, competitive proposals. "WIRE ROPE CO. "O. B. Marston." OUT OF CIVIL SERVICE. The council of the public board of the city of Oakland, passed the ordinance requiring the civil service board to appoint a boardmaster and all deputy boardmasters shall be excepted from the civil service rules.

WATERFRONT PROPERTY WORTH $200,000 WON

By Associated Press. EUREKA, June 25.—By a decision handed down today by Superior Judge C. H. Connick, James Hartney, plaintiff in the action of Hartney versus the Pacific Lumber Company, is declared the legal owner of property valued at more than $200,000. Includes practically all the land utilized by the lumber company as a shipping point at Field's Landing, six miles south of Eureka on Humboldt bay; 900 feet wide and the other improvements made by the company during the period it held the land under a title now declared void; electric tramways, warehouses and shipping machinery. This property and the rents that Hartney may collect if he wins the higher court make the suit the most important ever contested in this county.

TOO BUSY TO CARE FOR ESTATE OF $100,000

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—John S. Drum, who, besides being a banker and a capitalist, is an attorney-at-law, must be a very busy man, according to the report of Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco today denied his application for letters of guardianship of Mrs. Mary Pearce, 87 years of age, and her $100,000 fortune. Judge Trabucco denied the petition and continued the matter for a week, stating that he did not think that the petitioner would have time to care for the aged woman and her property. Mrs. Pearce lives at 317 Taylor street. She is the widow of the late George T. Pearce. There are two daughters, Emma and Fannie, who were unable to agree about which of them should be guardian. As a result Attorney Drum filed a petition. It is probable that during the interim before the case is called again the daughters may seek an agreement.

"He whipped every one there who crossed his will and he was the boss of the prisoners. He is as strong as he is big."

SENT MONEY FOR HER TICKET, BUT FORGOT SHE'D NEED CLOTHES

When Harriet's aunt in New York invited her to come on for the summer she enclosed a money order large enough to buy the ticket. If it had only been about $20 or $40 more, Harriet wouldn't have had a moment's doubt about being able to go. But she didn't see how she could ever find the money to buy all the new clothes she would need for such a trip. She was just sitting down sadly to answer her aunt's letter and say "No," when a friend happened in who knows all about CHERY'S CREDIT SYSTEM. Of course, it wasn't long before Harriet was confiding her disappointment—and then she heard THE WAY OUT.

Harriet spent a blissful morning in CHERY'S exquisite shop yesterday, and she's all fitted out now with a new suit and a coat and all the other dainty Summer things she wanted. On each garment she paid a small amount, arranging easy installments for the rest.

CHERY'S have two stores in Oakland, one for ladies at 515 Thirteenth street and one for men at 523 Thirteenth street. In San Francisco they have two stores, which have garments for both men and women. One store is at 1009 Market street and the other is at 2400 Mission street—Advertisement.

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful in all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides it loosens and takes out every particle of dust dirt and dandruff.

SUPERIOR COURT HAS DIVORCE DAY

Long Pending Cases at Last
Come to Trial; Two Decrees Granted.

HANFORD, June 25.—Two divorce suits have been tried in the superior court, the first one called being that of John D. Brown vs. P. L. Russell. The trial was on the cross-complaint of the defendant.

The case has been pending in the court for many years. The suit of Brown vs. Russell was tried first. The defendant, who was the principal witness, telling of acts of cruelty toward him by his wife, who persisted in accusing him of improper conduct.

After hearing the testimony, Judge Short ordered an interlocutory decree. Another action tried in court was that of Conception Chaboya vs. Chaboya. In which the causes of action were desertion and failure to provide for the support of the wife and child. Two witnesses were sufficient to secure an interlocutory decree in Judge Short. J. C. C. Russell was attorney for the plaintiff.

WEDDINGS REDUCE CORPS OF TURLOCK TEACHERS

TURLOCK, June 25.—Weddings are making inroads on the corps of teachers in the public schools.

J. H. Little, teacher of manual training in the grammar schools, and Miss Lura Cottle, also a member of the corps, were married today at the Presbyterian church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. M. Brooks, pastor of the Christian church. The wedding march was played by Miss Genevieve Adriaens, teacher of music, who is also to become a bride within a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Little went to San Francisco, where they will visit for a few days and will make a trip to Southern California.

Mrs. Genevieve Adriaens, who has been teaching music in the local schools for two years, and who recently resigned, left today with her little son for Milwaukee, where she will be married in July to W. J. Little.

Miss Bernice Pickett, who lately resigned her position in the high school faculty, is shortly to be married to Roy E. Weaver, assistant cashier of the People's State Bank. Miss Pickett is at present visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. N. Pickett of Rialto, San Bernardino county.

AUTO BURGLARS MAKE HAUL OF MERCHANDISE

SAN BERNARDINO, June 25.—Sheriffs and deputies of Santa Barbara, Ventura, and Los Angeles counties are on the lookout for automobile robbers who stole more than $200 worth of goods from Jack Ballard's general merchandise store, Linden avenue and the Coast highway. The store clerk said he was only a week ago, Ballard buying it from the former proprietors, O. B. Webb & Son.

Ballard discovered the burglary this morning, when he opened the front door, and found everything in confusion, merchandise lying on the floor, cash register open, and the back door broken, where the robbers gained entrance.

Automobile tracks at the rear of the store showed the thieves had driven their car up, loaded it full of plunder, and proceeded down the road in the direction of Ventura. Inquiry at Ventura revealed that men believed to be the robbers had stopped in that city last night.

The robbery is believed to have been committed by two youths who were seen around Carpinteria in an automobile, apparently sizing up the town and deciding their plan of operation.

CATTLE THIEVES BUSY WITH STOCK IN PINOLE

PINOLE, June 25.—John Vincent has requested the sheriff's office to locate, if possible, five head of stock, which were driven from his ranch near here some time during May.

There were two roan heifers, a black calf and a Holstein heifer and two other calves. Vincent has conducted a search on his own account, but failing to find the stock, has offered a reward of $25 for the capture of the thieves.

MURDER IS CHARGED.

PORTERVILLE, June 25.—Determined to investigate circumstances surrounding the shooting of his son, Abraham Wise, a San Francisco musician, killed at his country home, M. Wise, also of San Francisco, today swore to a complaint in Judge Lindsay's court charging J. R. Withrow, who did the shooting, with murder.

Wise declares that the evidence at the inquest did not establish Withrow's contention that the shooting was necessary to protect Anna Louise Wise from death at the hands of her husband.

GIFT FOR CLUB.

SANTA ROSA, June 25.—Members of the Bohemian Club who own Bohemia Grove, the magnificent redwoods near Guerneville, some day probably will receive a valuable gift of land from Arthur W. Foster, the San Rafael millionaire and university regent. Foster is defendant in a suit brought by the county of Sonoma over a right of way for a road across his land adjoining the Bohemian Grove, and on the witness stand this afternoon he said he expected at some future time to present 123 acres of land now owned by him adjoining Bohemia to the Bohemian Club. Judge Seawell is hearing the suit which is being bitterly contested.

FORGETFUL HUSBAND NEARLY WRECKS BRIDGE; DENTIST TO RESCUE

A moral and a warning are contained in this story. It is about a bridge party on the week, and why one of the guests was late. The party was a small affair, and the hostess telephoned her invitation for Tuesday afternoon. Among others, she called up a certain Fredmont nation, whose husband answered the telephone. He is a well-known and brilliant attorney and an entirely responsible person in his line, but not to be trusted with afternoon bridge invitations, it seems. However, he took the message courteously, and returned to say that Mrs. Blank would be very happy to play bridge that day.

At the home of the hostess on Tuesday afternoon eleven of the twelve invited guests appeared. Mrs. Blank was late, and at 3 o'clock was still not present. One table was left unfilled. Finally, the hostess decided to investigate. She called up the Blank residence. Mrs. Blank had gone to the dentist. This was strange, so she called Mr. Blank's office.

Did he remember the bridge invitation? Most certainly. For Wednesday afternoon, was it not? It was not, the hostess explained, and Mr. Blank was shocked. Evidently, he would do anything to save the situation. He came outside and he would have Mrs. Blank there in 20 minutes.

At the dentist's, Mrs. Blank was severely having a tooth filled—severe, so far as the card party was concerned—when her son dashed in with the upsetting news. "But I can't go in this gown," Mrs. Blank protested, "and my tooth isn't filled yet." "Never mind the tooth," Dr. Carleton said, "an emergency filling will do for today."

"And they won't care what you are wearing if you don't break up the party," he said. "Thus, in 20 minutes the delinquent guest arrived, with a cement filling in her tooth and not groomed for the occasion, but delightfully received."

The moral and warning have to do with the general irresponsibility of husbands in certain social matters.

STRIKE TO END.

By Associated Press.
MOUNT VERNON, Ill., June 25.—The forty-four months' strike of shopmen of the Illinois Central and Pere Marquette railroads, part of the Harriman system, will be ended officially on June 28, according to an announcement by the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

LAND DECISION INJURES BONDS

Grant Withdrawal Is Menace to Big Security Holdings.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Since the decision in the supreme court of the United States Monday by Justice McReynolds of the opinion in the Southern Pacific land case, involving a grant of 12,000 acres of public lands to the Pacific coast to the railroad, there has been no end of discussion as to the effect of the decision, especially on bondholders who were represented in the arguments of the case and whose bonds to the amount of $17,000,000 are secured in part by the 12,000 acres. As now interpreted by government officials after a careful study, the decision limits the interest of the railroad in the grant solely to an amount equal to $120 an acre.

It is contended that the railroad cannot retain more than that amount and must account for any excess above $120 an acre for which it has sold any of the lands.

It is a matter of record that some of the lands have been sold for as high as $1 an acre. While the grant limited the lots that might be sold to a single customer to 4,000 acres, the railroad has sold as many as 4,000 acres in some instances to a single purchaser. The court held that these sales, excessive as to the price prescribed as well as to the limitation on acreage, were a violation of the covenants of the grant.

The government, it is understood, will seek to obtain from the railroad by legal steps or otherwise, an accounting as to the excess price charged for lands, but it is a serious question with some of the government law officers whether the government, having granted away the lands without a reservation of any value therein to itself, can assert a title to the excess price obtained for the lands sold by railroad companies, except possibly as a trustee for the purchasers of the lands. The excess is said to amount to more than $2,000,000.

The whole question has been relegated to Congress.

That the government may turn the entire 12,000,000 acres into a national forest is suggested as one of the probable solutions of the problem. If this is done by act of Congress, the railroad company will be compensated to the amount of at least $120 an acre for lands yet unsold.

FORTUNES IN CARGO.

By Associated Press.
SEATTLE, Wash., June 25.—The steamer Victoria, which arrived here from Nome yesterday, brought down gold bullion valued at approximately $570,000. This comes from mining camps in the Fairbanks district and from the Iditarod, Ruby, Nome and Inukok country. The Victoria also carried 150 tons of antimony ore from the Fairbanks district, consigned to San Francisco.

CHARLEY KNOWS AN EASY JOB WHEN HE SEES IT

SLASHES VICTIM; MAY LOSE LIFE

Three Are Painfully Cut by Footpad, Who Flees Without Coin.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Mystery continues to surround the identity of the man who last night laid up and slashed three men on Twenty-fifth street. The victim, who was cut on the head, arm and leg, is now in a serious condition with knife wounds in his abdomen and both wrists.

Joseph Connolly, 314 Hampshire street, had his left thumb severed and an artery on his wrist cut.

Rudolph Schultz, 1541 York street, received five cuts on his left arm from the assailant, who yanked his huge knife with great rapidity upon his three victims and then dashed away.

Thirwell, Connolly, and Schultz were walking along Twenty-fifth street from Mission. They had been attending a lodge meeting and were bound home from a doorway and ordered them to hold up their hands. Before they had a chance to recover from their surprise the bandit made his onslaught, swinging the knife and slashing the three men in a few moments.

Shouts attracted the attention of persons not far away and the bandit made his escape before help arrived.

The three injured men were taken to the Emergency Hospital and Thirwell was reported in a favorable condition today.

SENT TO FOLSOM.

Judge J. J. Trabucco sentenced John G. Silva to a three-year term in Folsom for burglary today. Silva pleaded guilty to a charge of having entered and burglarized the home of a friend, Manuel Gomez, 335 Center street, on May 18.

Garis' Bedtime Stories

Johnnie Bushytail and Mary's Doll

(By HOWARD R. GARIS.)

"Where are you going today, Johnnie?" asked Mrs. Bushytail, the squirrel lady, of her little boy, as she saw him starting off through the woods after school one afternoon.

"Oh, I'm just going up to crowd-lad a little while before supper," Johnnie answered. "I may have a game of tag with Jimmie Caw-Caw, or play ball with Uncle Wiggly."

"Well, whatever you do, come home to supper," said Mrs. Bushytail.

"Mayn't I stay if Nurse Jane Fussy Wussy asks me?" Johnnie wanted to know.

"She won't ask you. I heard Mrs. Wiggly wobble, the duck lady, say she was going to Uncle Wiggly's hollow stump bungalow to tea, so Nurse Jane won't ask you. Besides, we are going to have hickory nut pudding."

"Oh, then I'm coming home," said Johnnie quickly, as he scampered along through the trees toward crowd-lad, where Uncle Wiggly Longears, the rabbit gentleman, was paying a little visit.

Johnnie was almost there when, looking not to the ground from the tree into which he had slipped, he saw a crowd girl hopping along, carrying a doll.

"Why, there's Mary Caw-Caw, Jimmie's sister," said Johnnie. "I'll go down and walk along with her." So he did, and after talking a little while Johnnie asked: "Why don't you fly through the air with your doll, Mary? It's ever so much quicker than hopping on the ground. I'd fly if I could, but I can't; only in Uncle Wiggly's airship."

"Well, I always do fly," said Mary. "But you see my new doll, Gabriel! Janet Kismeequik, gets dizzy if I take her up in the air, so I walk along the ground with her. My other doll, Matilda Altrah Soapbubble, loves to fly with her. The higher I go the better she is pleased."

"Well, we can't all be alike," said Johnnie. The doll, which was a sawdust one, said nothing, as she was not the talking kind. The sawdust one, which was the talking kind, said nothing, as she was not the talking kind.

Mary and Johnnie walked along together, Mary carrying her doll under her wing, when, all of a sudden, out from behind a big stone jumped the bad old tail-pulling chimpanzee-monkey.

"Oh, he's the worst of the bad for the crowd girl and the squirrel boy. 'Tails to pull! Tails to pull! Now I have some tails to pull!'"

"Not this time!" cried Johnnie quickly. "Here you are Mary! Into this stump with me!" And Johnnie helped Mary and her doll hide inside a hollow stump. And the hole in the stump was so small, and it was so deep, that the chimpanzee could not get at either of them to pull their tails.

"But you just wait!" chattered the chimpanzee. "I'll get you yet. You can't stay there all night, and when you come out I'll get you." And he tried to reach his hairy paw down inside, but he could not.

"He's right!" said Mary to Johnnie, as they cowered down in the dark stump. "We can't stay here all night, or our dad Mary, as she and the squirrel boy

The dogdom's aristocracy is on display in the largest dog show Oakland has ever seen, under the auspices of the Oakland and Alameda County Kennel Clubs.

The club's blue ribbon will be the first prize in each species, with red and white ribbons as second and third prizes respectively.

In addition to the club's prizes, several special awards will be made, including Mrs. Timothy Hopkins' cup for the best brace of Yorkshires, the L. P. Oker cup for the best toy and others.

Dog fanciers of the county have entered their best exhibits against the dogs from other parts of the country. More than 400 blooded dogs are on display.

Among the dogs on display are Mrs. Alice Hager, Mrs. D. T. Murphy, Mrs. C. J. Lindgren, Mrs. Thekla Elckhoff, Mrs. Horace Hill, Mrs. P. N. Hanrahan, Miss Dorothy Noon and Mrs. E. F. Brown.

John Bradshaw, one of the most noted authorities on dogs in the country, will act as judge, assisted by E. O. Corrigan, J. J. Mitchell and Frank Burns.

The officers of the Oakland and Alameda County Kennel Club are: President, P. N. Hanrahan; Vice-presidents, W. J. Culligan, Gil Meade and Frank Burns; treasurer, J. J. Mitchell; and secretary, E. O. Corrigan.

The show will open at 10 o'clock and hold sessions all day and in the evening until tomorrow night.

Recommendations that warning signals be placed on the Western Pacific trestle on which Patrick Caserly, an aged grocer, was killed last Saturday night, were made by the coroner's jury in its verdict concerning Caserly's death, following an inquest at the morgue. The jury held that Caserly came to his death largely from his own carelessness, but recommended that the safety signals be erected as a necessary precaution.

put new sawdust in the doll, sewing up the hole, and dressing her again. "A smart trick," spoke Johnnie.

"I think so myself," spoke Johnnie. "Anyhow, if the new shoes don't pinch the rubber ball, and make it squeak so it scares the condensed milk out of the vinegar bottle, I'll tell you next about the chimpanzee and Aunt Elphig's Elphig." (Copyright, 1913, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

remarked that it was clear the witness "had perjured himself." The Congressman asked that the testimony be ruled out, but the court, inquiring into the examination of the witness, decided to receive it.

SECOND WIFE
MURDER
TOLDNew Phase Begins in Trial of
London Bathbub
Bluebeard.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 25.—The trial of George Joseph Smith, indicted on the charge of having murdered his three wives by drowning them in bathtubs, entered its second stage today, the evidence relating to the death of Beatrice Munday having been completed.

The last witness in this connection was a Portsmouth banker, who testified that the prisoner had opened an account in the name of Smith. This money, the judge pointed out to the jury, was obtained by the defendant in the name of "Williams," from the sale of Beatrice Munday's estate, according to testimony.

"We now begin the Alice Burnham story," remarked the trial judge, alluding to the second alleged victim.

The first witness on this phase was an insurance agent from Southsea, where Smith was introduced to Miss Burnham. The testimony showed she took out $5000 worth of life insurance for the benefit of her mother.

"Next day," the witness said, "Smith married Miss Burnham."

Six weeks later, according to the witness, Smith wrote to him announcing that his wife had died in her bath. Smith subsequently visited him and produced his wife's will, which the witness said left everything to Smith.

The next witness was dressed in khaki. He was Dr. Burrows, now of the army medical corps, who arrived from the fighting line to testify that he had examined Miss Burnham for insurance and found her to be a first-class risk.

WOMAN IN HEALTH.
Mrs. Burnham, the mother of Alice, testified that her daughter, when young, had suffered from an illness believed to be epilepsy, but she never had a fit since.

Lodging house keepers of Blackpool testified to the refusal of the prisoner to take rooms in one house because there was no bath. The couple finally took apartments in the house of Mrs. Crossley, who testified that the night following the arrival, the bath had been prepared for Mrs. Smith. Subsequently water leaked through the kitchen ceiling. Later Mr. Smith entered the kitchen from the street. He seemed agitated, Mrs. Crossley testified, but talked for some twenty minutes. As he left the kitchen he called upstairs:

"Alice, put the light out."
Then followed the discovery of the woman's body in the bath.
Smith interrupted the witness by shouting:

"This woman is a lunatic."

SWINGS CLUB:
MAID GRIEVESState Official Bit Wild on Golf Links

SACRAMENTO, June 25.—Those who claim that golf is a pleasant, pastoral pastime, devoid of danger, and not akin to football in ferocity, will be surprised to learn that the Bonnie Scotch game, as played at the Sacramento Country Club, resulted yesterday in bloodshed.

It remained for State Controller John S. Chambers to demonstrate that life and limb can be endangered on the links, as well as in diamond battles or gridiron affairs. It fell to the lot of Miss Blanche Coulter, daughter of City Commissioner Coulter, to be the helpless victim of the controller's eager attempt to lift a golf ball across a distant range of hills.

Miss Coulter was watching the finer points of the game as indicated by the state official's play. Chambers was adding great excitement to ex-President Taft's favorite diversion.

Posing the diminutive ball upon a tiny tee, Chambers prepared for a drive that might make Walter Travis jealous.

He claims that he hit the ball. This fact has not been established. There is no doubt, however, that he hit Miss Coulter.

In her desire to see the presumably parabolic course of the pellet, she had stepped quite close, apparently unaware of her hazard. Perhaps she did not realize the presence of Colonel Rogers.

The club hit her on the head as it swung back. It is not known whether the weapon was a mallet or a bulger, but a tiny rivulet of blood made its appearance on her forehead.

Chambers was distracted at his foe's fall. He laid aside the implements of warfare, including the brass, creek and driver, and hastened from the green with Miss Coulter. He took her to the White hospital, where the little wound, which was not serious, was cared for.

Physicians View City on Sightseeing Tour

Five hundred physicians and surgeons, delegates to the big convention of the American Medical Association in San Francisco, were guests this afternoon of the Alameda County Medical Association on a trip about Oakland and its environs. The delegates left in automobiles from the Hotel Oakland, traversing the Highland Drive to Piedmont Park, where a luncheon was served the guests. They then proceeded to Berkeley and back through the hills to the Key Route Inn, where special trains awaited them.

Physicians from every part of the United States and their wives and daughters, were guests of the day. The affair was handled by the officers of the county medical association. Automobiles of the physicians and several large sight-seeing machines were pressed into service for the trip.

SAINT SAENS CONDUCTS OWN THIRD SYMPHONY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Last evening at Festival Hall Saint Saens conducted his third symphony, which was heard recently here under the baton of Dr. Muck with the Boston symphony orchestra. The performance last evening in some respects was more effective. Saint Saens brought out some details better than was evident in the former performance. The orchestra, however, did not play with quite the bravura that they did under Dr. Muck's baton.

Katherine Ruth Heyman, a California pianist, played the piano concerto in G minor with fluent technique and musical poise. Other numbers on the program were the symphonic poems, "Danse Macabre" and "Phaeton," and the "Hall, California," which was given at the first concert last Saturday evening. Mr. Hagaman conducted the piano concerto and the "Hall, California."

The third and final concert Sunday afternoon will bring as a main feature Saint Saens' cantata, "The Promised Land," for solo voices, chorus and orchestra.

SUITOR SUES
TO SHARE
LEGACYFoster Mother of Cabaret
Singer Jilted Him, He Alleges.

A romance which came to life at Oakland and which ended in a painful death in Los Angeles yesterday when Louis A. Sullivan, an Oakland contractor, filed a suit for $50,000 damages against Mrs. Edith Amos, a wealthy widow, alleging that she had not only jilted him and failed to marry him after she promised, but had also caused him to lose money in going out of business to prepare for the ceremony.

Mrs. Amos admits that there had been an engagement.

"I broke that engagement, though, because I found that Mr. Sullivan was not the kind of man I thought he was," she explained today.

Mrs. Amos recently adopted Alois Maier, a cabaret singer with a soft voice, an attractive face and 27 years, as her son, and made him heir to her considerable fortune. She denied that this action had anything to do with the broken engagement.

Part of the $50,000 claimed by Sullivan was wanted as recompense for the alleged fact that he gave up a business in Oakland in order to prepare for his wedding to the widow.

WAS HER SECRETARY.
"That is not true," Mrs. Amos said. "He never had a business in Oakland. He was nothing but a plaything and came here with me as my secretary. I provided him with money and he squandered it. Alois, my adopted son, had nothing to do with the matter, as I had discharged Mr. Sullivan prior to the adoption."

The history of the eventful life of Mrs. Amos was unfolded in a deposition which she made several days ago before Attorney W. J. Ford in connection with a suit which she had brought for the recovery of property said to have been deeded to the man she was to have married.

Whist parties and divorce courts figure prominently in the story. Mrs. Amos was married to a man who was a mutual admirer of the other's expertise in the game became successively a warm friendship and then love. Each declared that the marriage was impossible at the time, as Mrs. Amos was not free of a certain embarrassment in the form of a partially divorced husband.

On June 13, 1914, Mrs. Amos, who was then Mrs. Edith Davis, wife of Charles Davis of West Berkeley, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce and given the right to resume her former name of Edith Amos, acquired through marriage in Australia nearly twenty years ago.

COMES INTO WEALTH.
At the time she first met Sullivan, according to the deposition, Mrs. Amos was not wealthy. A week after she obtained her divorce from Davis her mother died, leaving her a large fortune. Her mother was the widow of Frank Burke of San Francisco, at one time one of the leading realty operators in the West.

Mrs. Amos received her final decree from Davis ten days ago. June 20 had been set as the date of her marriage to Sullivan, but when he appeared for the happy event, she spurned him.

The deposition made by Mrs. Amos also sets forth that she came to Los Angeles, accompanied by Sullivan, last August, and they occupied a home which she purchased on West Vernon avenue and which she is said to have deeded to him.

In the complaint Sullivan alleges that he had received on June 15 last Mrs. Amos' definite promise to wed him five days later, and that she immediately thereafter changed her mind.

Arsenal Workmen to Make Europe's Arms

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Scores of skilled workmen are leaving the employ of the government arsenal at Frankford to accept positions with private concerns that are supplying orders for munitions of war for the European belligerents. For the first time in years the arsenal is suffering from a shortage of employees and officials fear the situation may become serious. Twenty men in the machine shop and twenty-five in the fuse department resigned yesterday. A number of others gave up their positions last week and it was said today that nearly every department had been more or less affected. The defections have occurred not only among the workmen but among officials as well.

The men declare they have been given three-year contracts with the private firms at wages far in excess of those paid by the government. According to officials at the arsenal, there is a federal statute which makes it unlawful for private concerns to use a promise of higher wages to induce an arsenal employee to leave the service of the government and an investigation was said to be under consideration.

Colonel Montgomery, commandant at the arsenal, has recommended to the Washington authorities that the men be given a 25 per cent increase in wages.

SALARY INCREASES FOR DEPUTIES RECOMMENDED

Recommendations were filed with the city council today that the salaries of F. A. Pratt and James B. Dean, deputy city auditor, be increased; that of Pratt to $1900 per annum and that of Dean to $1800. Both have served the requisite time to qualify for a raise in salary. The recommendations were referred to commissioner of Finance and Revenue John Forrest.

BOY ARRESTED.
Carlo Dellacasa, 592 Forty-sixth street, was arrested last night on suspicion of having entered the home of P. Bertinetti, 580 Forty-sixth street, several days ago and stolen a revolver. The boy was admitted having stolen a revolver from H. H. Hart, 60 Alvarado road. He is being held for investigation. The arrest was made by Corporal Brock and Patrolman George Doolan.

AGAIN SEEK
DR. LYMANBondsmen Worried by His
Continued Absence

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Following notification by bondsmen that immediate release from the obligation was desired, a world-wide search was instituted by federal authorities yesterday for Dr. John Grant Lyman, convicted in the United States District Court here months ago of using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud.

Lyman has caused his bondsmen considerable uneasiness. It is said. When he left Los Angeles in February, 1914, he announced he was going in quest of another fortune with which to repay his creditors, whose claims here aggregated more than $100,000.

On conviction, Lyman was sentenced by Federal Judge Olin Wellborn to fifteen months at San Quentin. A stay of execution was allowed pending an appeal to the United States Circuit Court, still undecided.

On Lyman's $20,000 super-seed was bonded Angelo B. Vitagliano, E. Young and L. M. Lyne of this city and L. M. Winston of San Bernardino. Since Lyman left Los Angeles he was heard of in London, Paris, Chicago, New York and Boston.

The body, which was found in the square with a bottle of poison lying near, lay in the morgue a mystery to the coroner's officials for more than a week, while inquiries were made about San Francisco. The woman was a cousin of Commissioner E. J. Carragher of Sacramento, and was a widow. At one time she was wealthy.

IN REALTY BUSINESS.
Mrs. Stone came to Oakland to engage in the realty business, but, according to her friends, did not make a success. It may be, they say, that dependency over financial matters caused her self-inflicted death. She came to California several years ago, they say, after the death of her second husband. She had no children.

Mrs. Stone lived for a time in San Francisco, and later came to this city. At one time, it is declared, she possessed a large estate in the Catskill mountains near New York. Relatives from Sacramento will take charge of the body.

sociation will be in carrying to Washington its fight against the proposed Plans for legislation to curb fraudulent medical schemes, and other means are being outlined. A commission will be asked to control the matter.

More light on the subject of cancer was thrown yesterday in the convention sessions, when the radium treatment was discussed at length. Dr. Edward Reynolds of Boston was the principal lecturer and in his address opposed radium, declaring it no cure.

NURSES PROTEST.
The Nurses' convention is considering the eight-hour law and a wide range of similar topics while the physicians are discussing higher salaries. A protest to Harvard University on the ground that women are not permitted to attend lecture courses there, was voiced by the convention. The eight-hour law was discussed yesterday in detail. Miss Annie K. Goodrich being the principal speaker.

"The eight-hour law," she declared, "is the severest indictment against training schools and hospitals that has yet been made."

BLAME HOSPITALS.
Elizabeth Hogue, superintendent of Lane Hospital in this city, expressed herself as an adherent of the eight-hour system but not in strict accord with the present eight-hour law.

"The law is demoralizing to the nurses themselves," she said. "It destroys all continuous interest in a special case, and it gives the girls an opportunity to shirk their work without chance of punishment by being hired to remain till the work is properly done."

"The hospitals' abuse of the pupil nurse labor is the real cause for the law's enactment, and the way to avoid the burden which the law imposes is to observe an eight-hour system without the mandate of the law."

SEE LEPER CASES.
Ten lepers from the San Francisco isolation hospital were exhibited yesterday in the dermatology section of the American Medical Association, to illustrate a discussion on the subject by Dr. Douglas W. Montgomery. Many of the physicians present had never seen a leper before. They handled the patients in a gingerly manner.

That he can foretell sex is the declaration of Dr. James S. Freedborn, who stated before the medical convention that he has proved correct in his prediction in 97.5 per cent of his cases.

SUICIDEMystery of San Francisco
Morgue Cleared After Many Days.

Investigation was started today in Oakland, where the woman formerly lived, in the case of Mrs. Florence Lu Bois Stone, whose body was found ten days ago in Jefferson Square, San Francisco. Identification was only made yesterday when Mrs. J. H. Stedman, who owns a curio store in San Francisco, viewed the body. An effort will be made in Oakland to learn, if possible, a reason for Mrs. Stone taking her own life.

The body, which was found in the square with a bottle of poison lying near, lay in the morgue a mystery to the coroner's officials for more than a week, while inquiries were made about San Francisco. THUGS BURN WOMAN'S FEET

Attack, Burglary and Capture Follow in Quick Succession

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Seven Mexicans chopped their way into the home of Mrs. Louise Martin, an aged resident of the Union quarter, near the plaza early today and attempted to reveal the hiding place of $150 in gold. Three of the men then attacked her, after which they quarreled because the money could not be equally divided among seven. The dispute gave Mrs. Martin time to summon the police, and four officers who responded captured five of the seven.

According to the woman the men chopped the shutters out of one of the windows of her house. They tied her to her bed and applied lighted torches to the soles of her feet. She told them her money was hidden in a trunk. An ax promptly wrecked the lock of this and the gold piece were found. The attack quarrel and arrests followed in quick succession, but one of the two missing men was away with the money.

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—The people

cians, which is a branch of the National Academy of Music. The statistics show that the average family spends $100 a

"ELIJAH" PRODUCTION TO BE CONCERT FROM OPERA

No other opera except "The Mesiah" contains so much beautiful music of a varied character as does Mendel-sohn's "Elijah." The beautiful tenor solo, "If With All Your Heart," Elijah's great prayer, "O God of Abraham," the impassioned chorus, "Cast Thy Burden Upon the Lord," the great chorus, "Thanksgiving," "Thanks Be to God," the majestic soprano solo, "Hear
Ye Israel," the beautiful trio, "Lift
Thine Eyes," the great song of comfort,
"O Rest in the Lord," and the many other beautiful songs make this great work unique among choral compositions. There is not a dull moment throughout the entire work, the absorbing story told in beautiful music holds the interest of the listener throughout the performance.

TWO MEN ARE BADLY

hunting muskrats on the Big Pierce Meadows. The bird appeared and hovered over them for a few seconds and then shot down, striking first one and then the other.

Probe University
Record of Thaw

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 25.—Interest in the proceedings in the Thaw murder trial
K. Thaw is now more intense than ever, divided today between the taking of evidence in court and the application by counsel for the state for the appointment of a commission to hear from Dr.
Charles V. White, president emeritus of Harvard, who Thaw left that institution in 1902 without completing his course.
Today is the thirty-first anniversary of the murder of Stanford White on the roof of the New York City Hotel, for which Thaw was acquitted after one of the most elaborate insanity defenses ever presented.
Dr. White, then 40 years of age, was shot and killed by Thaw, who was 21 years of age at the time. The state would like to have the history of Edwin Thaw, and would also like to have the motion picture for which Thaw posed in Canada and New Hampshire.

BROTHERS MEET
AFTER 39 YEARS

One Living in San Diego. One in Los Angeles. Without Discovery.

SAN DIEGO, June 25.—After thirty-nine years of separation, M. A. Raines, of this city, and Dr. W. S. Raines, of Los Angeles, are together again and living over the old days, while they had their families summer at Coronado Tect City.

M. A. Raines, owning a house here at Pacific Beach and another at 2239 J street, left his father's vicarage at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1876. His brother stayed home longer and entered college.
Eventually he, too, came West and, happily, located close to the home of
M. A. Raines.
Each brother believed the other dead, and the English courts made official declarations of the doctor's death. The San Diego man, recently, in looking over an old Los Angeles directory in the chamber of commerce here came across his brother's name. He went to Los Angeles to investigate.
He located the doctor after several days of searching, at Rainescourt farm,

Zelma, California, but each was in doubt of the other's identity until the San Diego man called the Los Angeles man by the childhood name of "Bert." That completed the introduction.
They visited together at Rainescourt farm, a 100-acre place, for the summer.
Family names were kept for the summer to keep up with the San Diego family.
They will visit at Test City.

marine to keep it from settling within it. The submarine is in shape to be raised up on the arrival of improved apparatus.

MERRY COMEDY IDORA OFFERING

'Over the Fence' Pleases Large Audience Now Housed in Theater.

Starting tonight the clever musical comedy company which, for the past week, has been performing in the occupied amphitheater at Idora Park, will give its show in the main theater building. Owing to the unusually cool summer, the Idora management has decided that the big and comfortable theater will prove more popular with its many patrons than the outdoor amphitheater.

The Idora artists presented their second offering for the first time last night and scored even a greater hit than during the opening week. "Over the Fence," called a farce comedy with music, gives the Idora people excellent opportunities of which they took full advantage last night. Carrick Major as a henpecked husband afforded much amusement in the principal role. As his better "three-quarters" who rules them with an iron hand, Lillian Mason was excellent. Josephine Saunders, the prima donna, had a small part but scored with her beautiful voice. Teddy McManis, the comedian, was as funny as ever in the role of a colored butler. Clarence Lydston, with his excellent voice, has already won a following at Idora, while pretty Ma Van Time, the soprano, sang and danced charmingly. James Donnelly, Fred Heinz and the other principals help to make the company an evenly balanced one.

The chorus, always a feature with Idora productions, is much in evidence. The show is beautifully staged with new scenery, clean costumes and has a fresher look than many a two-dollar production that finds its way to Oakland.

Takes Out the Itch and Sting. Sore throat is first aid for mosquito, flea and other insect bites. Use Van Time's Sore Throat Lotion. Keep supply on hand, 50c. All druggists.

HUNDRED MILLION IN TOURIST MONEY FOR AMERICA, IS ESTIMATE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Money heretofore expended by American tourists to Europe, estimated by Secretary Lane at $100,000,000 or more annually, is this year being spent in the United States, according to a statement issued by him today.

Secretary Lane's statement was based upon reports received at the interior department, showing, it was said, an unprecedented public interest in the national parks of the West, as indicated by the big increase in the number of visitors this year over previous years.

"The department," said Secretary Lane, "is gratified with the public interest in the development of the great national parks. The number of visitors has been steadily increasing, but this summer's travel will be far ahead of other seasons. As the magnitude, beauty and healthfulness of the parks are better understood, it may be expected that the yearly travel to them will rapidly increase. Thus the damage caused by the war is being neutralized by inducing Americans to spend their vacation money at home. The whole country is the gainer by this intermingling of the people of the East and West."

OBJECTS TO COMPANY HIS WIFE HAS KEPT

Upton James Maher of Berkeley filed suit for divorce against Mary Maher in the Superior Court today, alleging that she has been cruel to him in that she often left home in company with strange men, neglected their three children while they were ill and that she kept company with women to whom he objected. He asks the custody of the children. John W. Aspinall has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Bessie Aspinall, on testimony of cruelty.

FIND MISSING BOY DEAD IN WATER

Body Shoots Out From Two-foot Drain Pipe of Cattail Reservoir.

WEAVERVILLE, June 25.—Thomas Davis, 7-year-old son of Griffith Davis, was drowned in Cattail reservoir at the lower end of Main street.

The fact was not known until the reservoir was drained and the body of the little fellow shot out from the two-foot drain pipe.

Thomas Davis, his brother, John, and several other boys went to the reservoir at 4 o'clock. Tom, afraid of the water, didn't go in swimming with the other boys.

TOWN IS SEARCHED. The swim being over, the boys returned to their homes in town. Tom failed to come home. His parents thought he had stopped to play with other boys on the road. When darkness came, the parents became alarmed. They hunted around town, never thinking of the reservoir until late, when some one recalled seeing a cap floating on the water. Then the town was searched.

It is presumed the little fellow went back to the reservoir alone and in walking along the bank, slipped into the water.

PLAN ANNUAL PRACTICE. SACRAMENTO, June 25.—Acting Adjutant-General Thomas has issued orders for the annual sea practice of the naval militia of California, to take place from July 3 to July 18. The United States cruiser, Marblehead and the torpedo boat destroyers Lawrence, Hopkins, Farragut and Whipple are to be used for the summer practice, which will stimulate conditions as closely as possible. Cruises will be made to the Santa Catalina Islands, off Los Angeles, and to San Diego.

SEEK TO PREVENT GIRL'S MARRIAGE

Elderly Vineyard Owner of Reedley Elopes With His Young Niece.

REEDLEY, June 25.—Efforts to obtain a warrant for the arrest of Bedros Barsoun, a 30-year-old rancher who eloped to Los Angeles with his 21-year-old niece, failed because Barsoun had not yet married the young woman when arrested in Los Angeles on Monday.

Judge Lang of Reedley, when appealed to for a warrant by brothers of the elderly vineyardist, refused to issue one because he knew of no charge that could be filed. The marriage of Barsoun to his niece would have been a violation of the state law.

It is charged that Barsoun and the girl, Agnes Paul, who live near Reedley, eloped Sunday with the intention of getting married in Los Angeles. Brothers of the man had officers trail them to Culton, where the trail was lost.

Barsoun and the young woman arrived in Los Angeles yesterday too late to obtain a marriage license, it is alleged, but went to a hotel and registered as man and wife.

It is probable that no charge will be filed here unless the couple get married, which the Los Angeles authorities may prevent.

Hill Endows Chair of Transportation

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 25.—Funding of the James J. Hill professorship of transportation in the Harvard graduate school of business administration with an endowment of $125,000 was announced by President Lowell in his address to the Harvard alumni assembly for commencement. The seventy-four donors of the money included railroad presidents, bankers and other friends and admirers of the former president of the Great Northern railroad who have named the new chair in honor of Mr. Hill because of his accomplishments as a builder and operator of railroads.
